“ I just saw this about the passing of Don, so I wasn't able to make the services. I would see Don and Gail at Park Tavern on Monday for cheap chicken. I would also see them when I went to vote. Last but not least was all those years living out there in Little Denmark, those where definitely the best. May Don RIP now an may his family and friends find peace knowing he is at home with the Lord!! Sorry for your loss!!! Sincerely Joe Freeburg and family

“ Funny but 2 of the few memories I have of my dad also involved Don. Might have been on the same day but I am not sure. First I remember Don and my dad sneaking onto Route 80 as it was being built, must have been over 50 years ago. They took me for a joy ride down the not yet open road. Pretty fast as I recall. Just remember them both laughing and thinking it was pretty cool. Also remember them lighting fireworks off on the farm behind the house. Started a fire and they got pretty excited. Always thought that was funny with my dad being a fireman and wondered how they let that happen.

RIP
