“ I met Harold and his wife once at his home at his annual open house farming show. He was a man admired by my father and we spent time together discussing his friendship with my mom and dad. He took the time to show me much of his farm collection. I visited him the week of my mother's funeral. We were both graduates of Univ. of Illinois. I always remember that day and the time he visited my mom and dad's home. He was a very important man but came off very humble. I am so glad to have taken that day to visit him and his wife on his farm. I called him from California once to congratulate him when he won his Lincoln award. He inspired me.

“ I met Mr. Steele when I was a new trainee with IL Farm Bureau. He made me feel as if we were old neighborhood friends. I would see him occasionally at some event after I left IFB and he still recalled who I was! I am so sorry to learn of his passing. Please accept my condolences. Linda Hiltabrand

“ It was an honor to work for Mr. Steele when he was at the Farm Credit Administration. He was such a fine man and always a gentleman. I learned so much from him and appreciate everything he did for me and how kind he was to my husband and mother. I will always remember how he took everything to a higher level and expected the best out of people. I am grateful I got to know him, Margery, and some of the members of his family. There are so many good memories. My deepest condolences to all of his family.

“ I never had a chance to meet you Harold, though I wish I had done so. Stories of you and your legacy at FCA were there when I was at FCA and no doubt they will not fade anytime soon. Well done good and faithful servant. May you rest in peace and may your family be comforted by your memory. In sympathy, Michael M. Reyna

“ Harold never saw a stranger and had countless friends. The last time I saw him he was getting off the train from Chicago last year. He had been sitting next to another good friend of mine he found out through their conversation. So when he got off the train he came straight to me, wrapped his arms around me, kissed me on the cheek and saidI'm so glad you came to get me of course to my surprise. I'm afraid they don't make many good men like that anymore. He & Harold Council were among them. They touched many lives & left good memories. It was a pleasure to know them. Joyce Washer

“ I met Harold Steele when he hired me to work at the Farm Credit Administration so I always thought his judgment was superb! My favorite recollection is his advice to "keep pork on your fork." Such a genuine, caring, intelligent and thoughtful man. Knowing him certainly enriched my life. Thanks to his family for sharing Harold with us Washington-based "non-country" folks during his years at FCA. His was a long life, well-lived. He will be missed but no doubt has earned his eternal rest.

“ My condolences. Mr. Steele was a great chairman of the Farm Credit Administration. He moved the agency forward with his leadership by pushing improved communications with regulated institutions. He also was a leader in introducing women into leadership positions for the FCA. He will be missed. Thank you Harold for all that you did for agriculture and for rural America.

“ To Greg Steele and entire Steele family, I have many fond memories of your dad. I enjoyed covering his work in his many positions and the times we could visit, especially on his farm. The last time Jane and I saw your dad was on the farm when he was 93. Then he took us out for dinner. I also enjoyed knowing you Greg and the times we shared. May our loving Father in heaven comfort you. David and Jane Silverberg of Poplar Bluff, Mo. My email is dlsilverberg@hotmail.com

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with the Steele family. What a wonderful and fulfilling life he lived. I will always remember Harold from his time with the Board of the Farm Credit Administration. I enjoyed working with him and he made the employees of the Agency feel like they always had an open door to discuss issues with him. I always enjoyed talking to him about farming and his experiences during World War II. He was a remarkable man and will be missed, but also celebrated.

“ Harold Steele occupies a warm spot in my memory from his days as Chairman of the Farm Credit Administration. I remember him as empowering staff to come forward with our best ideas for making the Farm Credit System safer and true to its mission. My favorite memory is his response to my query “How are you Mr. Steele?”, which was, more often than not, “Fine as frog’s hair.” My condolences to his family. I know he will be sorely missed.
