“ Kathryn was one of my first customers when I worked at the StateBank of Cherry. I will never forget her patience with me and our talks over the many years I worked there. We talked about so many things over the years, but one conversation still makes me smile. She mentioned favoring talking to the men vrs women in the local restaurants as the men were more interested in farming and outdoors...said the women only wanted to talk about cooking and she was not interested incooking. I remember her last visit to the bank before I retired in 2017. We exchanged Christmas cards every year, but I can't remember if I got one last year (my husband passed away last year). Wishing I could attend her mass tomorrow, but I am scheduled to work at the food pantry. I know in my heart she would understand. Keeping her in my prayers. God bless!

“ She was a great friend to my mother Patsy Stickel. She liked to remind me that she helped deliver me at Perry Memorial. She was a special lady.
