“ I haven't seen any of the family since the 1950's. My one memory was at Busha's house after butchering a hog. All of us kids had to use the old fashioned grinder to ground the meat to make sausage. I recall all the ladies playing cards afterward, and we all tried to guess which twin was which. I think the twins had the most fun fooling all of us.

Bertha and family are truly in my prayers. I know her suffering is long gone and she will truly be at peace.

May God bless you all!
