

Brenda Jean Gutierrez

December 7, 1942 - July 11, 2024

Lacon - Brenda Jean Gutierrez was born December 7, 1942 to Edward and Helen (Griggs) Peregrine, passing peacefully on July 11, 2024 at Lacon Rehab and Nursing Facility surrounded by her loving family.

Brenda was loved by many and was never afraid to let you know when you were on her last nerve. She was very sassy! She had a huge passion for life. She would always light up the room with her big smile.

She worked as a CNA most of her life, always cared for others more than herself. She was a selfless, kind hearted woman, who was incredibly talented. She loved to crochet and crocheted many blankets for the family and friends in her life time. She also creating beautiful designs with embroidery along with cross stitching. Her favorite past time was painting. Weather it be a rock, canvas or sketch pad, you would find her little pieces of art throughout her home. She enjoyed cooking because it always brought the family together, which was her end goal, to be surrounded by her family whom she loved so much.

Preceded in death by her parents Edward and Helen; one brother CY, and 2 children, Bessy Sué and Héron Jr..

Survived by four children, Malona Williams of Finley OH, David Luna of Medaryville, IN, Samantha (Ronald) Thompson of Princeton IL, Heather (Chuck Mecum) Pressy of Princeton IL.; She had many grandchildren, Steven (Kristin) DePauw, Dustin Luna, Amanda Luna, Chelby (Douglas) Thompson Golden, Esa (Evan Finholt) Luna, Myles Thompson, and Blake Luna; and seven great grandchildren; one sister.

Cremation rites have been accorded.

A celebration of life will be held at a later date.
