Carol DeSkeere

PRINCETON — Carol Lou DeSkeere, 78, of Princeton passed away Monday, Oct. 24, 2016, at Perry Memorial Hospital in Princeton.

Carol was born Feb. 24, 1938, in Princeton to Louis Harold and Margaret Virginia (Gleason) Cassidy.

She enjoyed the Chicago Bears, Bulls and the Cubs. She loved to shop and spend time with her family, friends and grandchildren. She also really loved her dog, Glory, as well as all animals.

Carol is survived by two daughters, Colleen (Patrick McCauley) Sailer of Princeton and Kelly Foster of Dixon; and four sons, Troy DeSkeere of Laporte, Minn., Terry (Jayne) DeSkeere of Rock Falls, Tony DeSkeere of Baccus Minn., and Trent DeSkeere of Princeton. Also surviving are her ten grandchildren, Michael, Matthew, Meghan, David, Lester, Jacob, Timothy, Gage, Kallie and Gavin; four great-grandchildren, Avery, Austin, Keanon and Kaydon; and several nieces and one nephew.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband; one son, Michael Foster; one sister, Mary Lowdermilk; and one niece, Deborah Erickson.

The family will receive friends from 10 to 11 a.m. Friday, Oct. 28, at the St. Louis Catholic Church in Princeton. A funeral Mass will follow the visitation at 11 a.m. with Father Jeffery Stirniman officiating.

Memorials may be directed to Friends of Strays.

The Norberg Memorial Home in Princeton is assisting the family. Online condolences may be left at www.norbergfh.com.
