

Cheryl Lea Drake

August 12, 1952 - May 12, 2025

Princeton - Cheryl L. Drake, 72, of Princeton, Illinois, passed away peacefully on Monday, May 12, 2025, at Alure of Walnut, surrounded by her loving husband Doug of 46 years.

Born on August 12, 1952, in Princeton, IL, she was the daughter of the late John L. and Joanne (Haley) Taylor. Cheryl was a proud graduate of Illinois State University, where she earned her Bachelor's Degree in 1974. A true Redbird at heart, Cheryl's passion for education and leadership began early and continued throughout her life.

On March 17, 1979, she married the love of her life, Douglas L. Drake. Together, they built a life rooted in love, commitment, and community.

Cheryl dedicated her professional life to teaching and later served as a respected supervisor at LCN Door Closers, where her 35+ years of service earned her the admiration and respect of all who worked alongside her. She was a natural leader who led by example-whether in the classroom, on the field, or in the workplace.

An active member of the Princeton Women's Bowling Association, Cheryl enjoyed a wide range of activities, including softball (as a catcher), bicycling, bowling, and cruising to Aruba. She especially treasured trips to Colorado to spend time with her beloved nieces and nephews.

After a long and courageous battle with dementia, we lost not only a teacher and a coach but also a dear friend. Cheryl was known for her strength, warmth, and many talents. Her legacy is one of quiet leadership, heartfelt encouragement, and unwavering dedication.

She is survived by her husband of 46 years, Douglas L. Drake of Princeton; her brother, J. Bradley Taylor; sister-in-law, Patty Taylor; nephew, Zachory Taylor; niece, Emily Wolfe; as well as numerous cousins, extended family members, and friends.

Preceded in death by her parents, John and JoAnne Taylor, and her grandmother, Margaret Haley.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be directed to the Alzheimer's Association in Cheryl's honor.
