

Dale Joseph Henderliter

September 27, 1956 - March 31, 2013

Dale Joseph Henderliter
1956-2013

Celebration of Life for Dale Joseph Henderliter, age 56 of Malden, will be Saturday, Apr 27, 2013 from 2:00 PM to 4:00 PM at the Norberg Memorial Home. The family will receive friends at this time.

Dale Joseph Henderliter passed away on Sunday, Mar 31, 2013 in Davenport, Iowa. He was born on Sep 27, 1956 in Springfield, Illinois to Robert and Catherine (Tomow) Henderliter. He was raised in Keshena, Wisconsin. He married Dawn Karns on Apr 03, 1978 in Keshena, Wisconsin. He worked at Monterey Mushroom, Becks, and Ace Distribution. Dale loved the outdoors and Harness Racing.

Dale is survived by his wife of nearly 35 years, Dawn Henderliter of Malden. Also surviving are three children: LaMoyne (John) Morris of Davenport, Lori Henderliter of Zearing, and Leeanna (James Kirk) Henderliter of Davenport. Surviving as well are 6 grandchildren: Austin and Abby Henderliter, Alicyn and Aleaha Bice, Pierce Terry and Mason Monroe. Also surviving, are two sisters Trudell (Brad) Barber of Springfield and Tammy (David) Kitson Jr. of Keshena, WI, and one brother Henry (Amy Matchapatow) Lyons of Keshena, WI and a special cousin Lynnell (Eric) Perez of also of Keshena, WI.

He was preceded in death by his parents, his stepfather, Hank Lyons, his brother Ken Tomow, and a special cousin Bobby King.

Memorials may be directed to the family.