

Daniel Scott "Danny" Gelsomino

March 21, 1969 - March 18, 2014

Daniel Scott "Danny" Gelsomino

Daniel Scott "Danny" Gelsomino of Addison, Illinois and formerly of Princeton, lost his heroic battle with cancer on Tuesday, March 18th at Central DuPage Hospital in Winfield, Illinois.

He was the beloved son of Jeanie and Vince Gelsomino of Princeton.

Danny was born on March 21, 1969 in Joliet, Illinois.

His parents survive along with a loving sister, Amy Gelsomino of Peoria, Illinois.

Also surviving are two children, Kasey and Nathan Gelsomino of Elmhurst, who were the joys of his life and who inspired him to fight so bravely during his 25 month battle.

He was preceded in death by his grandparents, Mary and Arthur Residori and Josephine and Joseph Gelsomino, a special aunt, Mary Ann Stasko, two uncles, Ronald Stasko and Richard Mikuska and a cousin, Ronnie Stasko, all of Joliet.

He attended Princeton schools and was a 1987 graduate of Princeton High School. During his high school years he was active in band, basketball, and baseball. Danny loved playing the drums.

Danny attended Purdue University in West Lafayette, Indiana and graduated in 1991 with a bachelor's degree in communications. He avidly followed Purdue football and basketball programs even following graduation.

He had an illustrious career in software sales achieving many awards for his expertise and work ethic. He was an inspiration to friends and co-workers all during his career.

He most recently was Director of Alliances for Accenture and traveled to New York regularly.

Danny was happiest when he could attend Kasey and Nathan's activities including Kasey's Irish dance competitions and Nathan's hockey, basketball, and soccer games.

He was a die hard Cub's fan and also loved the Blackhawks, Bears and Chicago Bulls.

Danny was the recipient of the 2013 Jay Braida Memorial Golf Open, an event that truly celebrated his life. He felt very humble to be selected for this outstanding event.
