“ I just found out about Danny's passing. My husband worked with Danny at Verizon for over 40 years. He was such a wonderful and giving person. He was so good to me helping me with my computers after Tom passed and he had a heart of gold. When he would drop over to help me we would spend time remembering Tom and the good old days at GTE/Verizon. Danny, you will be missed. God Bless and Rest in Peace.

“ I'm at a loss over Danny's passing. He was such a great caregiver and supporter of mom. Whenever mom's computer went down, Danny was the first to call her. He'd drop what he was doing, run over to the house and he'd leave with a plate full of goodies as the pay for his services. What a great friend he was. Here is just one of the many family camp trips that the Greenback's and Martins and others made growing up. This one is at the Wisconsin Dell's many a day ago.
