

Dioscoro C Soco

December 15, 1946 - January 3, 2023

Princeton - Dioscoro Cortes Soco, 76, passed away at Aperion Care on January 3, 2023 surrounded by many prayers from his family and loved ones.

Dioscoro was born to the late Porferio and Cesaria (Cortes) Soco in Mandaue City Philippines on December 15, 1946. After graduating early, Class of 1962 he married his love Edith Rosal on December 19, 1971.

He worked as a Merchant Marine as an Engineer cargo ships, he worked at Harper Whyman and then the Ace Distribution, before going to work at the Walmart Distribution Center.

Dioscoro was quite the guitar player, he did it in his free time and you could often find him playing or trying to learn a new song or even create his own. He was very musically inclined and could play quite a few instruments. He enjoyed bike riding and spending much time with his family, extended family and friends.

Surviving Dioscoro is his wife Edith Soco of 51 plus years; two daughters, Suzette R. Iannucci and Estela R Soco.

Preceding him in death were his parents Porferio and Cesaria Soco and five brothers.
