PRINCETON, Ill. - Donna A. Woolley, 74, of Colonial Hall Center in Princeton, Ill., and formerly of Walnut, Ill., died at 9:05 p.m. Monday, July 2, 2007, at Colonial Hall.

Funeral services will be at 10:30 a.m. Saturday, July 7, at Norberg Memorial Home in Princeton. The Rev. Laura Root will officiate. Burial will be at Elm Lawn Memorial Park in Princeton.

Friends may call from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. Friday, July 6, at Norberg Memorial Home.

Donna was born March 28, 1933, in Macomb, Ill., the daughter of Louis Homer and Irene Wayne (Johnson) Allen.

She was married to James B. Woolley on June 2, 1956, in Macomb. He preceded her in death, as did her parents, and one granddaughter in infancy.

Donna was a loving mother to her five children who survive, Janet (Paul) Jones of Hannibal, Kim (Mike) Walters of Walnut, Ill., Allen (Karyn) Woolley of Hermon, Maine, and Chuck (Stephanie) Woolley and Gregg (Beth) Woolley, both of Princeton, Ill. Also surviving are 12 grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

Donna was a graduate of Western High School in Macomb. She was employed in Dietary for Perry Memorial Hospital in Princeton for several years. She was also a devoted den leader for the Walnut Cub Scouts for several years and a member of Walnut's Eastern Star.

Memorials may be directed to Perry Memorial Hospital Foundation.
