

Earl Robert Sims

April 29, 1932 - June 24, 2017

PERU — Earl Robert Sims, 85, passed away Saturday, June 24, 2017, at Manor Court in Peru.

Born April 29, 1932, in Louisville, Ky., to Ambrose L. Sims and Vineta (Criswell) Sims, he married Cleo Green March 4, 1950, in Princeton. She survives.

He was a tool and die maker.

Earl enjoyed woodworking and gardening.

Also surviving are one son, Patrick Andrew Sims of Florida; one daughter, Susan Ringle of Wisconsin; two grandchildren, Zachary Jensen of Wisconsin and Sophie Ringle of Wisconsin; and one sister, Kay Farley of Illinois.

He was preceded in death by one son, Michael Sims; one brother, James Sims; and two sisters, Elma Sims and Francis.

Services will be at 11 a.m. Thursday, June 29, at the Norberg Memorial Home in Princeton with Pastor Steve Adamson officiating. Burial will be in Elm Lawn Memorial Park in Princeton.

The family will receive friends prior to the services, from 10 to 11 a.m.

In lieu of flowers, the family has asked that any memorials be directed to the LaSalle County Red Cross.

Online condolences may be left at www.norbergfh.com.

Tribute Wall

VS

“ I was friends with Sue Sims from 7th grade thru high school. She is so talented not only with her voice and obvious ability to act in school plays but also in how she treated others with kindness and her fun wit. I met her Dad a couple of times, he was very warm and friendly and Sue also got those characteristics in her personality too. My condolences to the family. God Bless, Valerie Stenzel-Woods

Valerie A Stenzel - October 23, 2017 at 05:39 PM