“ Greg, I'm so sorry for your loss. I hadn't realized your wife was sick until a few weeks ago when I heard it from a friend. If I wasn't out of the country I would definitely be there to pay my respects. Again I'm very sorry for you and your families loss. My prayers go out for them, you and especially Elizabeth.

“ Dear Greg, Eric, Breanna, and family,
John and I mourn the loss of an amazing Christian, a warm and vibrant role model of what it means to be a person who lives the life Jesus asks of us. Her imprint will remain on the souls of the many she touched in our church and in our schools for this generation and for generations to come.

Do you remember how she always had cards ready when someone was sick and missing from Our Table? Everyone signed those cards before she sent them. The day she died, Linda Faber took cards for those who were at Our Table to sign. The tradition she began will live on, and people will continue to care for one another. She will be missed at Our Table, but the love she shared will go on.

In that same way, the love she shared, the things she taught, her generosity of spirit, the way she turned the conversation around to the needs of others, her willingness to plan special events will go on.

Meanwhile, we will hold you in our prayers and we will remain available to you no matter what you might need.

May God bless you and keep you, John and Jeany Gewin

“ Dear Greg,
I am sending deepest sympathy to you and your family. Liz was a special person who lit up a room with her sense of humor and joyful personality. She was a dear sorority sister and I am sure she impacted the lives of her students through her many years of teaching. I am praying for God to bring you comfort during this difficult time.

“ Dear Greg and family,
Sending our love and prayers to all of you. I never had a sister, but I was so fortunate to gain many through Delta Delta Pi. Liz was so vibrant and fun and we became good friends. I was honored to have her in my wedding.
My heart aches for all of you and I know some of these memories will bring comfort. Rest peacefully, my “Dear Old Pal.” ❤️🌹 Lynne

“ Greg and family, My deepest condolences to you. I have great memories of Liz during our Delta Delta Pi days at Eureka College. She always had a smile on her face and sparkling personality. My Mother loved mentoring her at Leland schools when Liz started her teaching career. She felt like she gained another daughter. May your memories comfort you during this difficult time. Jackie
