E. June Cork (w/pic)

PRINCETON — E. June Cork, 90, of Princeton passed away Thursday, May 12, 2016, peacefully at her home.

She was born to Fred and Esther Stoner in Manchester, Iowa on June 19, 1925. She graduated from Bureau Township High School with the class of 1943. June worked at the Green River ordnance plant during the war and then married William Cork in 1946 and moved to Denver, Colo. They divorced in 1964.

She was very active in sports, she played baseball, bowled, and rode snowmobiles and motorcycles. She was a certified bowling instructor. Most of these activities took place in Denver, Detroit and Cheyenne.

She was employed by the city of Cheyenne for 12 years as the office manager, but then decided to move back to Illinois in 1976 to be near the family. June worked at Faber Motors in Princeton until she retired in 1987.

She is survived by one son, Byron Cork of Pahrump, Nev.; one daughter, Rae Frazier of Princeton; two grandsons, Ben and Lewis Frazier of Princeton; one great-grandson, Ean Curtis Frazier of Princeton; and many nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her parents; three sisters, Barbara Stoner, Sara Merkel and Ethel Nelson Craig; and one brother, Harry Stoner.

Services will be private and at a later date. Cremation has been accorded.

The Norberg Memorial Home in Princeton will be assisting the family. Online condolences may be left at www.norbergfh.com.
