

George E. Hoeffliger

November 14, 1922 - November 3, 2014

George Edward Hoeffliger
1922 - 2014

PRINCETON — George Hoeffliger, age 91, passed away Monday morning, November 3, 2014 at Heartland Health Care Center in Henry, IL. A Funeral Service will be held on Monday, November 10, 2014 at 2:30 PM at Norberg Memorial Home, Princeton, IL. Pastor Judy Giese of the United Methodist Church of Wyanet will officiate. A burial of ashes will be immediately after the service, at Oakland Cemetery in Princeton. The family will receive friends during a visitation Monday prior to the service, November 10, 2014, from 1:00 to 2:30 P.M. also at Norberg Memorial Home.

George was born November 14, 1922, in Effingham, IL to George and Jessie (Wyckoff) Hoeffliger. He was married to Margaret Jean Milliken on December 1, 1951, at the First United Methodist Church in Princeton. She precedes George in death.

George was a Marine M.P. during W.W.II. After the war he spent most of his adult life farming the land owned by his family for generations. When he wasn't hard at work George loved fishing and hunting, and especially looked forward to the trips to the Gulf or to Canada for more of the same. He was a lifetime member of the VFW.

George is survived by his daughter, Nancy (Mike) Hannah of Normal, IL., his son Herbert "Herb" (Marie) Hoeffliger of Princeton, his grandchildren Megan (Steven) Hannah of Mokena, IL., Erin Hannah of Normal, and Margaret Hoeffliger of Princeton, and one great-grandchild Roisin Hannah.

He was preceded in death by his parents, his wife Margaret Jean, his sons Paul and Frank Hoeffliger and his 5 brothers and sisters.

Memorials may be directed to the Bureau County Fairgrounds or the Princeton VFW.

Online condolences may be left at www.norbergfh.com.

All arrangements have been made with Norberg Memorial Home, Princeton.
