Harold E. Manning

1922 - 2014

PRINCETON — Harold Manning, age 92, passed away Friday morning, November 14, 2014 at Perry Memorial Hospital in Princeton, IL. A Funeral Service will be held on Thursday, November 20, 2014 at 10:30 AM at Norberg Memorial Home, Princeton, IL. Pastor Judy Giese of the Red Oak Church of Ohio, IL will officiate. Burial will be immediately after the service, at Prairie Repose Cemetery in Dover. The family will receive friends during a visitation Wednesday November 19, 2014, from 4:00 to 7:00 P.M. also at Norberg Memorial Home.

Harold was born January 13, 1922, in Kewanee, IL to Ralph and Nellie Marie (Murphy) Manning. He attended Tiskilwa High School. He was married to Delight Fundell on January 25, 1942 in Princeton, IL. She precedes Harold in death. Harold worked for L.C.N. door closures for 34 years.

Harold was in the Army during W.W.II from 1942-1946. He was deployed with the 2nd Tank Battalion of the 9th Armored Division, at the Battle of Baston. He was a member of the VFW, the Moose Lodge and the Knights of Pithian. Harold liked to refinish furniture and loved going to auctions. He collected knives, brass hose fittings and “the Lone Ranger” memorabilia.

He is survived by his 3 daughters Kathleen White of Ohio, IL., Diane Cox of Carmi, IL., and Alice Rod of Katy, TX., 7 grandchildren, 15 great-grandchildren and 4 great-great-grandchildren. Also surviving are his sister Ila Hendrickson and brother Robert Manning both of Princeton.

Preceding Harold in death are his parents, his wife Delight Manning, and a sister Josephine Swanson.

Memorials may be directed to the Tri County Humane Society or to Colonial Hall Nursing and Rehabilitation Center, in Princeton.
