“ One of my favorite memories was while I was visiting Grandma and Grandpa in Arizona. They were so exciting to take me to the Organ Pizza Place. We were eating yummy pizza and listening to the great music and then the organist began playing the Armed Forces Anthem. Grandpa proudly and reverently stood as they played and I'll never forget the gratitude I felt in that moment for his service and for the service of countless others. He honorably served his country and his patriotism will always be remembered.
