PRINCETON — Ida Alice Arlt, 93, died Sunday, July 17, 2016, at Methodist Hospital in Peoria surrounded by her family.

Ida was born June 6, 1923, in Wolcott, Ind., to George and Rosa Heinzelman. In 1942, she moved to Chicago. She married Lester K. Arlt on Aug. 24, 1946.

Ida became an office manager at Farm Equipment Institute in Chicago until she retired in the early 1980's.

Ida was an active participant within the Hampshire Colony Congregational Church in Princeton, where she formed lasting relationships with treasured friends and congregants. Ida was a positive light in the lives of many and made friends where ever she went.

Ida is survived by her daughter, Gail (John) DeSalvo; her granddaughters,

Christina Miller and Elizabeth (Bryan) Schlender; her great-grandson, Brodie; her great-granddaughters, Cate, Cailey, Annabelle and Georgia; her brother, Frank; and her sister, Dorothy. She is further survived by nieces, nephews, great-nieces and great-nephews, and other relatives and many dear friends.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband; her beloved son John; two sisters, Margaret and Marie; and her brothers, Alva and John.

A visitation will be at 10:30 a.m. Friday, July 22, at the Norberg Memorial Home in Princeton followed by a funeral service at noon at the funeral home. A private interment will be held at Ridgewood Cemetery in Des Plaines at a later time.

Memorials may be directed to the family for disbursement.
