James Nickelsen

PRINCETON — James L. Nickelsen, 67, of Princeton passed away Friday, Sept. 22, 2017, at his home in Princeton.

Jim was born on Jan. 10, 1950, at Perry Memorial Hospital in Princeton to Jack and Hazel Nickelsen. He was a graduate of Princeton High School and apprenticed with his father in the plumbing trade.

Jim was self-employed and became the owner of Nickelsen Plumbing, Heating and Air Conditioning in 1976.

Jim was a member of the Hampshire Colony Church and Elks BPOE #1461, and was past president of the Lions Club. He loved the Bureau County Fair and was a lifetime member.

He enjoyed spending time with his grandchildren as well as going on road trips, boating at Castle Rock Lake and watching auto racing.

Jim is survived by his wife of 46 years, Cathy N. (Grady) Nickelsen; one daughter, Jacqueline (Lee) Barr; one son, Jamie (Tara) Nickelsen; three grandchildren who were the joy of his life, Courtney LaVan, Jack Nickelsen and Caleb Barr; three sisters; and numerous extended family members.

He was preceded in death by his parents and two brothers-in-law.

A private memorial will be held at a later date.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Elks Club #1461 of Princeton.

The family much appreciates your thoughts and prayers.

Online condolences may be left at www.norbergfh.com.

“ I have known Jim for many many years. Went to school with both of his kids and he was a very nice person. He was working on a plumbing issue next door to my house and it was very very hot outside so my great niece and I got him and his son some bottled water and walked it over to them. He thanked me a bunch of times for that water. Jim you will be missed by many people.
