

Jamie Lee Thompson

August 18, 1964 - September 15, 2024

Princeton - Jamie Lee Thompson, 60, of Princeton, IL, passed away peacefully at her home on Sunday, September 15, 2024.

Born in Muscatine, IA, she was the daughter of the late Carl Lee and Janice Kay (Schabinger) Cherrie. Jamie attended Midstate School and married her beloved husband, Kurtis D. Thompson, on November 24, 2023, in Arispie Township.

She made a significant impact in her community as a reporter for the News Tribune in the 1990s, later transitioning to a career as a property manager from 2008 until her passing.

Jamie's passion for wildlife led her to serve as the Sub-Permittee for Bekahs Bandits Wildlife Rehab and Rescue in Ohio, IL. Jamie had an extraordinary love for animals, finding endless joy in caring for birds, baby possums, and often juggling a few baby raccoons. She enjoyed camping trips and daily walks at the park with her loyal dog, Jezebel.

A talented and gifted writer, Jamie authored *Tator Town Blood*, captivating readers with her storytelling ability. She had a remarkable knack for making everyone feel welcome, never meeting a stranger. Her vibrant spirit brought joy to all who knew her.

Surviving are her husband Kurt Thompson of Princeton; children, daughter Lindsey (Eric) Rediger-Bissonette of Princeton, IL; and two grand pups, EveyBlu and Tommy.

Preceded in death by her parents, Carl and Janice Cherrie, sister Julie Cherrie Fogarty and her partner Roger Fleming.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be directed to Bekah's Bandits Wildlife Rehab and Rescue in Ohio, IL.

Private services will be held at a later date and time.

Online condolences may be directed to www.norberfh.com

Arrangements by Norberg Memorial Home, Inc. & Monuments.

“ Jamie was a beautiful person inside and out. I was in Concert Choir with her in high school. She was always so sweet and friendly. She was so encouraging to me. She was so gifted on the piano! The first time I heard her play, “The Bells” I was sooo impressed. Praying for her family and dear friends - she will be greatly missed!
