“ To the family of Jean: I had the pleasure of sharing Explorer’s Bible study with Jean for many years. She was our steady Eddy. She attended every week, was quiet but when she spoke she had wonderful revelations to share. My favorite memory of Jean was sharing a study called breaking free by Beth Moore. She didn’t speak much during the study but after it was over she shared that it actually changed her life. I am sorry for your loss, especially dealing with an earthly goodbye during these trying times. Your family is in my prayers. Sue Scruggs

“ Jean was such a sweet lady. I met her about 25 years ago when I lived in Princeton and attended the Evangelical Covenant Church. We had many great discussions. The last few years I haven’t been in town as much and didn’t know she had moved. She will be in my thoughts. May her family find peace in this difficult time.
