“ Judy, Tim and Shelly,
I’m so so sorry at your loss of Jerry. I’m in Florida and cannot see you in person to tell you that I’m thinking of you and praying for God’s love to comfort you. A few months ago I lost my husband so I know the severe pain that one experiences!! The last time we were all together was at the lunch table following Uncle Walter’s funeral!!! I hope to see you when I return to the Midwest!!

“ Our condolences to Judy and Tim. We grieve with you over your loss. Our friends we love dearly, holding memories close to our hearts, our neighbors for so long. Shared good times and bad times, we held each other up. For the love of our horses we also shared. Ride on Jerry, ride on. Kevin and Karen Ketchmark
