“ Sad to hear about your mothers passing Billy. Sorry i wasn't able to make it to the visitation. I think i only met your mother once when i came over to your house to play with you making some kind of creatures out of goop that had to be molded. We were pretty young then, not sure how old & i think your mom came & gave us cookies to eat while we were playing. I didn't know that both our mothers graduated from Princeton the same year. I think you have your mothers eyes Billy. Take care friend,
