“ We remember meeting Karen 24 years ago at her home in Amboy on Sleepy Hollow Rd with her husband Walt. We were thinking of buying property there too and had some questions so we stopped and knocked on the door since it was the only home there at the time. We told her and Walt why we were there and just like that they said sure come on in and we talked for quite a while. That was the day we met two beautiful, loving and caring people with the biggest hearts and became friends for 24 wonderful years. We love you and will miss you dearly our friend. May you rest in peace. Hagie & Connie
