Laurel O'Brien

PRINCETON — Laurel O'Brien, 35, of Princeton died unexpectedly Friday, Nov. 30, 2007, at her home.

She was a graduate of Princeton High School and attended both Webster University in St. Louis and Columbia College in Chicago, where she majored in film. She was pursuing a degree in criminal justice. She had worked for firms in Chicago and Denver, and after returning to Princeton had been employed as a freelance writer.

Surviving are her husband, Simon Gee; one son, Ryan of Princeton; her mother, Judy O'Brien of Princeton; her father, Rory O'Brien of Palos Park; one sister, Erin O'Brien of Chicago; her grandmothers, Evelyn Farley of Princeton and Mary Beth O'Brien of North Carolina; and two nephews, Kieran and Kerry O'Brien.

A memorial gathering will be at 10 a.m. Friday in Harkrader Hall of St. Louis Catholic Church, Princeton, followed by services at 11 a.m.

A memorial fund for her son is being established at Citizens Bank in Princeton.
