

Lynn Joann Isaacson

January 12, 1950 - December 9, 2023

Princeton - Lynn Joann Isaacson, 73 of Princeton, passed away Saturday, December 9, 2023, at the University of Iowa Hospitals in Iowa City with her family at her side.

She was born on January 12, 1950, in Princeton to Warren and Marjorie Sergeant. Lynn married Gary "Peanut" Isaacson on August 9, 1967, in Princeton. They were married for 56 years, during which they loved raising their two kids, Krista and Aaron "Ike", and adoring their two granddaughters, Elle and Anagrace.

Throughout her life she took care of her family and worked in retail in Princeton. She was employed at The Round Up, Spurgeon's, Ben Franklin, Country Casuals, and Amcore Bank.

Her home has been filled with lots of love and laughter, with the help of Peanuts never-ending array of jokes. After years of hearing the same jokes, she would respond to him with an adorable roll of her eyes. Their back-and-forth banter will be dearly missed. She kept an immaculate home and had a flair for making ordinary things beautiful.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Warren and Marjorie Sergeant; and one brother, Stephen Sergeant.

Lynn is survived by her loving husband, Peanut; one daughter, Krista (Mark) Jones, of Tiskilwa; one son, Aaron (Janet) Isaacson, of Princeton; two granddaughters, Elle McComber and Anagrace Isaacson of Princeton.

Lynn enjoyed living a private life surrounded by her family and close friends. By honoring her wishes, there will not be a visitation and her burial service will be private.

Please know that her family is incredibly grateful for the outpouring of love and concern.

“ Peanut and Family~

I am so sorry to hear of Lynn's passing. She became a friend when we were in 7th grade. I remember when my Mother was expecting my youngest sister, Lynn practically moved in because she couldn't wait for the arrival! After my sister was born and due to be coming home Lynn couldn't pedal her bicycle fast enough to get to our house and be there for the arrival. We had so many other memories together, but this one was always a favorite. Wishing you comfort and peace at this difficult time.

“ Our family met Lynn’s family when we moved to Princeton from Peoria and we became fast friends spending a lot of time on Lincoln Street and getting to know one another. She was one of a kind and somebody I always thought very highly of and she will be missed by so many.
Peanut and family, I am so very sorry for your loss and my thoughts and prayers are with you as you go through this difficult time. But you have so many wonderful memories to help get you through some of the days. There walks another angel amongst us. 🙏🙏

“ I first met Lynn at a resort in Wisconsin where our dads worked at LCN together. We had a great time, and remained friends when we saw each other. She even worked with my daughter at the bank.
Peanut and family, I send love and condolences to you. I also worked at the hospital where I knew your daughter.
