PRINCETON — Myrna K. McKune, 76, of Princeton passed away Saturday, Aug. 13, 2011, at Colonial Rehab and Nursing Center in Princeton.

She was born Feb. 3, 1935, in Manlius to Alvin and Arzella (Beatty) Heuer. On Nov. 10, 1956, she married Roy McKune.

She graduated in 1953 from Manlius High School. She had worked at Kraft Foods, Gibson's Store, Rice Restaurant, the Bureau County Republican and Harper-Wyman. She was also an EMT.

She was a deacon and member of Presbyterian Church in Princeton. She was also an avid volunteer, an avid gardener and bingo player, and an avid Cubs fan. She volunteered at Friends of Strays and also liked to read and listen to stories.

Surviving are her husband, Roy McKune; three children, Michelle Ann McKune of New Orleans, Martin Wayne McKune of Chicago and Michael Louis McKune of Princeton; one brother, Grant Heuer; two grandchildren, Tara Griffith and Julie Griffith; one great-grandchild, Brianna Griffith; one nephew, Tom (Nancy); and one niece, Cindy (Steve).

She was preceded in death by her parents and one sister, May Beth Heuer, in 1997.

Funeral services will be at 11 a.m. Thursday at the Norberg Memorial Home, Princeton, with the Rev. Spencer Lawrence officiating. Burial will follow in Elm Lawn Memorial Park, Princeton.

The family will receive friends from 5 to 7 p.m. Wednesday at the funeral home.

Memorials may be directed to the Presbyterian Church or Friends of Strays.
