“ I remember my mom telling the story of Aunt Nettie, her younger sister getting in December 1948. I was barely a month old and I believe they got married at my mom n dads house. Mom fed me, breast feeding, and there was so much going on she put me upstairs in my bassinet to sleep. The ceremony went on and my Aunt Nettie asked where I was. My poor mom panicked and ran upstairs to find me sobbing in tears. She felt so horrible and said she will never forget that date. I cherished bot Aunt Nettie and Uncle Marion, he walked me down the aisle 51 years ago when Butch and I got married. My Dad had passed away and Uncle Marion stood for me as the best guy ever so I had to ask him if he would sub for my Daddy. They were ver much loved for all their selfless acts as Christians. And as the Aunt n Uncle of the 3 Talmadge kids, now just my little sister, Mons and I are left of our family. Mona I go first cause I couldn't take loosing you little sister.
