Pamala E. Jiricka
1946-2015

PRINCETON — Pamela E. Jiricka, 68, of Princeton passed away Saturday, Sept. 12, 2015, at her home.

She was born Nov. 17, 1946, in Princeton to Roger and Grace (Butts) Lenihan. She married Charles Jiricka Nov. 12, 1977, in Princeton.

She was a graduate of Princeton High School, Class of 1964.

For a short time right out of high school, she was a flight attendant for American Airlines. After she finished working for the airlines, she worked for her parents at the Oasis Lounge. Most of her working career she bartended at the Ranch House and then worked at the Ye Olde Underground Inn. She retired from Perry Memorial Hospital this year from the housekeeping department.

She enjoyed going to many musical festivals in the surrounding area. Everybody that knew Pam knew she had a zest for life. She was young at heart and had a love for everyone. She could put a smile on anybody's face.

Pam is survived by two daughters, Teri (Paul) McCoubrie of St. Louis and Missy (Gary) Eggert of St. Louis. Surviving as well are her grandchildren, Collin McCoubrie, Miranda Bond and Caylee Eggert, all still at home; one brother, Jeff Lenihan of Princeton; and several cousins and one aunt.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Charlie; her parents; and one brother, Mike Lenihan.

Funeral services will be at 10 a.m. Friday, Sept. 18, at the Norberg Memorial Home in Princeton. Burial will follow in the Oakland Cemetery in Princeton.

The family will receive friends from 4 to 7 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 17, at the funeral home.

Memorials may be directed to Friends of Strays.

Online condolences may be left at www.norbergfh.com.
