

Patricia Ann Lorenzen

March 29, 1939 - December 12, 2010

Patricia Ann Lorenzen

1939-2010

PRINCETON — Patricia Ann Lorenzen, 71, of Princeton passed away in Wesley Medical Center in Wichita, Kan., on Sunday, Dec. 12, 2010.

She was born March 29, 1939, in Ashland, Kan., to the Rev. Randall and Mildred (Weikal) Rice. She married Ronald Lorenzen Oct. 21, 1961, in the Bureau Township Community Church.

She was a 1957 graduate of Bureau Township High School in Princeton, and a 1961 graduate of Fort Wayne Indiana Lutheran Hospital School of Nursing. She worked in the nursing field for nearly 50 years, 30 of them as an office nurse for Dr. J.L. Foresman of Princeton. She was dedicated to her nursing profession and provided loving care to her patients through the many years.

She was a church organist for more than 40 years, retiring in 1998. She enjoyed traveling, reading, classical music, computer work and staying current with the latest advances in the medical field.

She had been president of the Home Owner's Association in Mesa, Ariz., since 2003, where she and her husband spent the winter months. They started spending winters in Arizona in 1998.

Survivors include her husband of Princeton; two daughters, Cheryl (Steve) Eshelman of Lancaster, Pa., and Kim Lorenzen (friend Chris Cicak) of Charlotte, N.C.; her mother of Wichita, Kan.; siblings, Phillis (Dwight) Sholl of Sturgis, Mich., Dr. Phillip(Ruth) Rice of Colorado Springs, Colo. Lois (David) Steward of Overland Park, Kan., and nine nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her father; and maternal and paternal grandparents.

Visitation is from 4 to 7 p.m. Friday at Norberg Memorial Home in Princeton. Burial will be in Elm Lawn Memorial Park.

Funeral services will be at 10:30 a.m. Saturday at the funeral home, the Rev. Laura Root officiating.

Memorials may be made to the New Hope Church of the Nazarene.

Cemetery Details

Elm Lawn Memorial Park

Knox St
Princeton, IL 61356