November 7, 1966 - March 14, 2022

Tiskilwa - Perry Keith Delbridge, 55, of Tiskilwa, IL passed away at OSF St. Frances in Peoria, IL, on Monday, March 14, 2022., surrounded by the love of his family and holding his brother Chris's hand.

Keith (always know by his middle name) was born in Princeton, IL to Larry Delbridge and Carolyn Hopper Bowers on November 7, 1966. He was a graduate of Tiskilwa High School, Class of 1985. He worked as a carpenter most of his life, self-employed. Many homes in Princeton and the surrounding area have Perry's personal touch in them.

He enjoyed fishing, one of his favorite hot spots was Jensens Pond, with his buddy Fuzzy, as well as a few other spots, kept secret by Keith. He could tell a long fishing tale, true or not, you wanted to know how it turned out for Keith or the fish. He always kept a huge garden and was considered a master gardener by his family and friends and could grow just any fruit or veggies. He enjoyed cooking and made a pretty good salsa.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be directed to Friends of Strays in Princeton, IL.

Surviving are his mother, Carolyn Hopper of Tiskilwa, IL, his brother Chris (Kerri) Hicks of Tiskilwa, IL; two nephews, Jordan Sissel and Jacob (LaMonda) Sissel.

Preceded in death by his step father, Reid Bowers, his grandparents, Perry and Delma Hopper and his beloved four legged forever friend, Snookie.
