PRINCETON — Raymond A. Larson, 87, of Princeton passed away Tuesday, May 10, 2016, at his home.

He was born Oct. 30, 1928, in Berwyn to Lester and Gladys (Waggoner) Larson. He married Alice Barilow Oct. 3, 1950, in Chicago. She preceded him in death.

After graduating from high school, Ray enlisted into the U.S. Army. He retired after working as a union master carpenter for many years.

He was a member of the American Legion, the First Lutheran Church of Princeton, the National Rifle Association, Illinois State Rifle Association, Tri-County Gun Club, Fort Defiance Gun Club and Princeton Elks Lodge, and was a volunteer for "Our Table."

Ray loved his wife very much, as well as his children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

He is survived by three children, Raymond (Jean) Larson Jr. of Garden

Prairie, Deborah (Neil) Lindberg of Princeton and Lawrence Larson of Princeton; seven grandchildren; three-great-grandchildren; and one sister, Marjorie (Don) Kirkconnell of Greenwood, Wis.

He was also preceded in death by his parents and one son, Donald (Gerilyne) Larson.

Services will be at 11 a.m. Friday, May 13, at the Norberg Memorial Home in Princeton with Pastor Norman Femrite officiating. Burial will follow in the Elm Lawn Memorial Park in Princeton. The family will receive friends prior to the service, from 9 to 11 a.m., at the funeral home.

Memorials may be directed to American Legion, Bureau County Senior Center and First Lutheran Church Princeton.

Online condolences may be left at www.norbergfh.com.
