“ We are so sorry to hear of Dick's passing. We loved playing rolle bolle with him Manlius on Wednesday nights during the summer. He was such a character, but you all know that. In reading about him it was wonderful to see how much he loved life; hunting, fishing, bowling and bolle-ing, cooking and obviously spending time with his family. How much we will miss him and his humor and "bs". Prayers to all of you for God's tender grace and mercy. Dan and Annie Chapman
