“ Very sad and sorry to hear about Bob's passing away. My sincere heart and prayers go out to all of his family. I dated Bob a long time ago in the 1980's but had moved to Chicago for better employment. Since then, I am now retired and living in Tiskilwa. Many times I have wondered how he was doing but didn't know how to reach him or where he lived. He lived in Buda when I knew him. Also, his son was such a good wonderful person and Bob was so proud of him. This was a shock to see his obituary in the newspaper. Again, my heartfelt condolences to the family.

To family and friends of Bob,

I was so sorry to hear from Addus of Bob's passing. I was a HomeCare assistant on Tuesdays for Bob. He always asked about my family and was kind to me. May God Bless Him and your family during this time of loss.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Jaques
