

Roger L Holsclaw

October 20, 1946 - December 13, 2018

Princeton – Roger L Holsclaw, 72, of Princeton, IL passed away on Thursday, December 13, 2018, at Perry Memorial Hospital, surrounded by loved ones.

Roger was born in Sterling, IL on October 20, 1946, to Harold and Lolita (Reed) Holsclaw. He graduated from Malden High School, class of 1964. He married Carol Fenwick on September 5, 1965, in Malden, IL and then they started their family.

He worked at the John Deere farm implement dealer and parts man for twenty two years. He also spent ten years owning his own machine shop.

Roger enjoyed tractor pulling, puzzles, golfing and gardening. You could catch him playing a video game now and again and over the years became quite the cook. He really enjoyed spending time with his family and especially his grandchildren.

He is survived by his wife, Carol Holsclaw – Princeton, two sons, David (Jane) Holsclaw – St. Louis, Michael (Lee) Holsclaw – Chicago, one daughter, Amy (Phil) Castner – Southern Alabama, five grandchildren, Joshua, Shane, Colin, Ben and Lauren.

Roger is preceded in death by his parents, one granddaughter, Abby Burke.

A Memorial Service will be held at a later date and time.

Memorials may be directed to the Diabetes Action Research and Education Association.

Online condolences may be left at www.norbergfh.com

Tribute Wall

DS

“ Carol, our deepest sympathy to you and your family. -----Arno, Irma and Doris Streit

---

Doris Streit - December 21, 2018 at 11:15 PM

DW

“ Carol, I am so sorry for your loss. I have such good memories of our times together in Walnut and later. Take comfort in your memories and the love that you shared.

Deb Miller Wood

---

Deb Wood - December 18, 2018 at 06:22 PM

AL

Roger was my oldest nephew and called me often just to make sure I was alright. I was so proud of he and Carol and how they raised their family. I will always remember how caring he was. Rest in peace Roger.

---

aunt Mary Lou - December 19, 2018 at 04:06 PM