

Roger D. Wedekind

April 12, 1953 - June 21, 2017

PRINCETON — Roger D. Wedekind, 64, passed away Wednesday, June 21, 2017, at Illinois Valley Community Hospital in Peru.

He was born April 12, 1953, in Spring Valley to Fred A. and Bernice L. (Michael) Wedekind.

He was employed with Kerasota Theater Company as the district manager and Combined Cleaning.

He enjoyed attending church at Amazing Grace in Sterling, building computers, taking care of his many beloved pets, as well as making people laugh, playing chess and watching football.

He is survived by two sons, William D. (Lori) Wedekind and Jason (Jessica) Hassler; four sisters, Karen (Richard) Skaggs, Gail Baker, Linda (Kurt) Piotrowski and Francis Self; two brothers, Ralph (Kris) Wedekind and Rodney (Kelley) Wedekind; and two grandchildren, Zachary Hassler and Payton Hassler. He is also survived by his longtime companion, Linda Benard.

He was preceded in death by his parents; two siblings, Nancy Smith and Janice Zackerson; and his dog, Lucky.

A Celebration of Life will be at 11 a.m. Saturday, July 8, at the Norberg Memorial Home in Princeton.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be directed to the Norberg Memorial Home for the family. Memorials may be directed to the William Wedekind family to help with funeral expenses.

Online condolences may be left at www.norbergfh.com.

Tribute Wall

DC

“ Roger will be greatly missed. He was like a brother to me. We worked many years together at Kerasotes. I'll always remembered drinking a beer to "The Captain" at a bar in LaSalle. When God goes to his garden, he doesn't pick weeds.

Danny L Cook - July 07, 2017 at 05:50 PM

“ Vivid Recollections was purchased for the family of Roger D. Wedekind.

July 07, 2017 at 08:30 AM

AR

“ Roger worked at our facility every Friday. Everyone always looked forward to seeing him with his coffee and cookies in hand. He was a hard worker and truly cared about everyone he met. His humor and great attitude will truly be missed.

Avangrid Renewables

Avangrid Renewables - June 27, 2017 at 08:12 PM

LB

He loved you folks at the wind farm! He loved all the little Killdeers there! Thank you for being so nice to him!

Linda B - July 07, 2017 at 08:06 PM