Ruth V. Edlefson

1925 - 2014

PRINCETON — Funeral Service for Ruth V. Edlefson, age 89 of Princeton, will be Thursday, July 10, 2014 at 11:00 AM at the First Lutheran Church in Princeton. Pastor Norman Femrite will officiate. Burial will follow at Elm Lawn Memorial Park in Princeton. The family will receive friends on Thursday morning preceding the service from 9:30 - 11:00 AM, July 10, 2014 also at the First Lutheran Church.

Ruth Edlefson passed away on Saturday, July 5, 2014 at Greenfield in Princeton. She was born March 12, 1925, in Princeton, IL to Arthur and Esther (Johnson) Norene. She graduated from Princeton High School in 1942. She married Robert Willard Edlefson on January 20, 1946 at the First Lutheran Church in Princeton. Robert preceded her in death on April 13, 2001. She was a farmers' wife and a homemaker.

Ruth was a lifelong member of the First Lutheran Church. It was there that she spent a great deal of her time making quilts for the Lutheran World Relief. She loved fishing and traveling with Robert after retiring from the farm life. Ruth took writing classes at the Senior Center where she became quite the prolific poem and story writer.

Ruth is survived by her one son Dale (Lynn) Edlefson of Middeton WI, three daughters Carla (Robert Barrow) Edlefson of Columbus OH, Connie (Richard) Frankenfeld of Springfield IL, and Diane (Brian) Conaway of Denver CO, 8 grandchildren and 3 great-grandchildren, and two sisters Doris Walton of Delphi IN, and Annette (Leo) Peterson of Dixon IL.

She is preceded by her husband Robert, her parents, one daughter Michelle K Edlefson in 1956, and two sisters Marian Sneed and Fern Wingo.

Memorials may be directed to either the First Lutheran Church in Princeton, or to Gateway Services.

Arrangements have been made through Norberg Memorial Home and online condolences may be left at www.norbergfh.com.
