She loved to do anything outdoors, camping, hiking, and she really enjoyed dirt bike riding, from the age of seven on. One of her favorite past times was hanging out with her boyfriend, Tobi Britton, good friends and spending time with her family. She also enjoyed volunteering at her nieces and nephews school events.

She is survived by; her parents, Clifford Coffin – Princeton, IL, Karen Mongan – Princeton, IL, her grandparents; Larry and Vicki Mongan – Princeton, IL, one brother, Jonathan (Kayla) Buckman – Wilsonville, IL, four sisters; Nicole (Kevin) Carroll – Princeton, IL, Haleigh (Brandon) Youngren – Princeton, IL, Sydnee (Steve Mongan – Toluca, IL, Molley Mares – Princeton, IL, eight nieces; Embyr, Tabitha, Josie, Jennessa, Aurora, Alexia, Lailah, Lyliann and seven nephews; Eli, Tucker, Khalil, Braydin, Dylan, Robert and Elliot and numerous aunts, uncles and cousins.

“ We decided to go camping. Stuart and I. We called Sky and Tobi and talked them into coming out for the night.
 They get there a cpl hours later. Pull in to camping spot and Sky climbs out of the car, laughing and giggling. Echo following her out, still round, fat little butterball. She yells Anna come check this out. I go to her car, look in the back and ..

wait for it.....

 is her couch from the living room, and she looks at me and says, "we don't have a tent"
 I lost it, almost fell down laughing, with Echo barking and me tripping over or her. And Sky laughing so hard I thought she'd pee her pants.
 But it worked!! They slept comfortably and we had a great time.
 Thought I'd be an old lady, reminding her of that day, years from now and we would fall out laughing again.
 Gonna miss your grin, your sweetness, and your open, trusting, heart. Til we see each other again. Love you bye.
